THE YOUNG CHILD: APPROACHES TO
ACTION IN DEVELOPING COUNTRIES

A draft report and recommendations by the Executive Director

CORRIGENDUM

Foreword, page ii, last paragraph

The second sentence should read

Poverty is, of course, a main contributing cause of the disadvantages to which so many children are subject, whether in the industrialized or developing countries. That the average inhabitant of the developing countries has less than one tenth the income of his counterpart in the industrialized countries is a special challenge, but that is not the subject of the present report.
