Report on Emergency Food Relief Allocation to Somaliland under Italian Administration

1. On 2 April 1959 the Executive Director circulated to the Executive Board a recommendation for an allocation of $339,000 to Somaliland under Italian Administration to provide emergency food relief to 250,000 children and mothers in drought stricken areas (E/ICEF/R.702).
2. As of 8 April a total of 21 votes had been received, all in favour of the recommendation. The recommendation has thus been approved by the Board.
3. The 1,500 metric tons of rice provided in the allocation will be shipped from Thailand around 2 May. The 600 metric tons of skim milk powder being provided free of charge by Canada, and for which UNICEF is paying the ocean freight costs, will leave Canada within the next several days. Steps are being taken to purchase the 500 metric tons of pulses provided in the allocation. It is expected that the rice and milk will arrive in Somaliland under Italian Administration around the 25th of May. The foods will be placed in distribution for consumption during June and July, as envisaged in the recommendation paper. In the meantime, detailed distribution plans are being worked out in the field.
