INTERVIEW No. CF/HST/INT/CRC/BR1

CLAIRE BRISSET
 Chief, Information & Development Education Section
 UNICEF Geneva

2 February 1990

(Interview was in French, this is rough translation as it is being transcribed)

(Discussion about CB and Khmer children--PHS has read articles, asks in what capacity CB wrote about these children. CB went to Cambodia for UNICEF in 1988. CB has been at UNICEF/Geneva for 2 1/2 years, went to Cambodia for UNICEF. Before had worked for UNICEF in Paris as consultant. Before was journalist for Le Monde, Le Monde Diplomatique. She was in Cambodia, but not on border, because U had been asked not to work on border. She was in Cambodia two times in 1988 to observe work of UNICEF, then wrote article for Le Monde Diplomatique.)

PHS: So, you have been with UNICEF here since mid-1987?

CB: Yes. For a while I had a "status mixed". I was at Paris, but made many trips into the field, in preparation for work here. Especially in Africa, often in Ethiopia.

PHS: When did you first hear about the Convention.

CB: I was here in 1979 for IYC. At that time I was made aware of rights of the child in general, not specially the text of the Convention, but in general. Later, I was in such close relation with UNICEF while I was still a journalist, that I can't really recall at what moment one started talking of the Convention per se. I made many missions into the field for UNICEF, went often to New York for ExBd. I had many very close friends who were then functionaires of UNICEF. Therefore, can't really remember when I first heard about it, since it was among the activities we heard about for such a long time.

I was so familiar with it for so long. My first report for UNICEF was in 1975. At that time I was still with Figaro.

PHS: And when you arrived here...

CB: Oh, when I arrived here, it was "deja dans le paysage". Sept. 1987. From that time on UNICEF was beginning to talk about it quite a bit. ("pas mal").

I prepared a large dossier for Le Monde Diplomatique on the rights of the child. We can give you that. (1988?) On child labour, children in war. CB thinks this was in 1987. Could ask for this from Monde Diplomatique. (Annick will ask for this)

Cultural differences in attitude toward Convention

PHS: This is interesting, because I think there was more attention given to the Convention in Europe than...

CB: A thousand times more!
