UNICEF Staff Award for Operation Lifeline Sudan

OLS Coordinator Philip O'Brien (right) presents the UNICEF Staff Award to the staff at a ceremony in Nairobi, Kenya, in February. The award was given "to the OLS team, as an outstanding example of a long-term humanitarian operation, active in both Government and SPLA territories since 1989. The staff, working at great personal risk and in remote and isolated locations, maintained the flow of essential lifesaving services for mothers and children." Philip O'Brien left OLS in early March 1996 to take up a new position in the Emergency Unit in UNICEF Headquarters. The new OLS Coordinator is Pierce Gerety, who previously headed the UNICEF Somalia programme.
