SOCIAL SERVICES

U.A.R. (EGYPT)

ICEF 3989/HOLTON/61 - Heliopolis Kindergarteners, Cairo, learn to write.

In several small suburbs near Cairo, the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF) is assisting the Ministry of Social Affairs and Labour of the United Arab Republic (Egypt) to strengthen its social services program. This covers a training program involving a variety of services to children - day care, residential care, boys' clubs and vocational training. The United Nations Bureau of Social Affairs provides technical advice and fellowships to assist in the development of the project. UNICEF is supplying teaching equipment, transport for field training, toys and play materials as well as vocational training kits.
